AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT dated August 27, 1952, is between LATROBE STEEL COMPANY, Latrobe, Pennsylvania, or its successor or successors (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") and the United Steelworkers of America or its successor (hereinafter referred to as the "Union").

Section I—Intent and Purpose

It is the intent and purpose of the parties hereto to set forth herein the basic Agreement covering rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment to be observed between the parties hereto, and to provide procedure for prompt, equitable adjustment of alleged grievances to the end that there shall be no interruption or impeding of the work, work stoppages, strikes, lockouts, or other interferences with production during the life of this Agreement.

Section II—Recognition

A. The Company recognizes the Union as the exclusive collective bargaining agency for all hourly production and hourly maintenance employees of the Company employed in and about the Company's plant.

The Company recognizes and will not interfere with the right of its employees to become members of the Union. The Union agrees that neither it nor any of its officers or members will engage in any Union activity on Company time or will engage other employees in any Union activity while such employees are on Company time; and the Company may discipline any employee who shall be proved guilty of violating this provision. Any dispute as to the facts or as to the nature of the discipline imposed by the Company shall be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of Section VIII, Adjustment of Grievances, including arbitration, if necessary, or the Company may elect to leave to the determination of the arbitration machinery the question of the nature of the discipline to be imposed.

B. All Employees who on the date of this Agreement are members of the Union in good standing in accordance with its constitution and by-laws and all Employees who shall become members after the date shall, as a condition of employment, maintain their membership in the Union in good standing for the duration of this Agreement provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to any Employee who, within the 15 days next preceding the end of this Agreement, shall withdraw from the Union.

Each new Employee shall sign and furnish to the Company at the time of his employment an application card, in duplicate, for membership in the Union, in a form agreed to in writing by the Company and the Union. A copy of such card shall be furnished to the Employee. Such application card shall provide that it shall not become effective until the expiration of 30 days after the date of his employment and that it shall not thereafter become effective if such Employee shall mail to the Company a written notice of his election not to become a member of the Union, which notice shall be postmarked not less than 15 days and not more than 30 days after the date of his employment. The Company shall promptly furnish to the Union a copy of each such notice received by it. If such application shall become effective at the expiration of such 30 days, one signed copy of it shall then be turned over to the Union. The Union shall be given reasonable opportunity to inspect all such notices which shall be received by the Company.

For the purpose of this Section, an Employee shall not be deemed to have lost his membership in the Union in good standing until the International Secretary-Treasurer of the Union shall have determined that the membership of such Employee in the Union is not in good standing and shall have given the Company a notice in writing of that fact.

Upon receipt by the Management of a voluntary written assignment (in a form agreed to in writing by the Company and the Union) by an Employee, the Company will deduct from the second pay of such Employee each month thereafter during the existence of such assignment his periodic Union dues for the preceding month and the Company shall also deduct any assessments against him which shall be general and uniform among Employees who shall at the time be members of the Union, and, if owing by him, an initiation fee, all as payable to the Union in accordance with its constitution and by-laws. The Company shall promptly remit any and all amounts so deducted to the International Secretary-Treasurer of the Union, who shall notify the Company in writing of the respective amounts of the dues, initiation fees and assessments which shall be so deducted.

The pay referred to for deductions of dues, initiation fees or assessments shall be the second pay closed and calculated in a month.

There shall be no discrimination, interferences, restraint or coercion by the Company or any of its agents against any employee because of membership in the Union.

The Union shall indemnify and save the Company harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits, or other forms of liability that shall arise out of or by reason of action taken or not taken by the Company in reliance upon certified lists furnished to the Company by the Union or for the purpose of complying with any of the provisions of this section.

Section III—Wages

A. Effective March 1, 1952, each employee shall receive, in addition to his earnings received from hourly, tonnage, incentive and piecework rates existing prior to March 1, 1952, and increased amount for each hour worked as per the schedule attached hereto, made part hereof and marked "Exhibit A".

B. Effective March 1, 1952, each employee who is paid base rate, plus piecework tonnage, premium, bonus, etc., shall receive for each pay period the greater of the following amounts as determined at each pay period.

(1) Former base rate plus the amount of increase provided in Subsection A hereof multiplied by the number of hours worked plus any earned incentive; or

(2) The appropriate new, adjusted, hourly rate set forth in Exhibit A multiplied by the number of hours worked.

The retroactive application of the wage adjustments provided for in this Section III shall apply only to present employees of the company.

C. Trade apprentices shall receive not less than the minimum common labor rate applicable at the plant for each hour worked during the first period of the trade apprentice training program.

D. Women employed to perform work on jobs heretofore performed by men shall receive the same pay for fully performing the same quantity and type of work.

E. Each employee shall be guaranteed and shall receive for each day's work an amount equal to the minimum common labor rate which shall be not less than $1.44 per hour for the plant involved multiplied by the number of hours worked by him on that day. If however, such employee's fixed occupational hourly rate is greater than the above amount, the Company agrees and guarantees that he shall receive for each day's work an amount which shall not be less than his fixed occupational hourly rate, multiplied by the hours worked by him on that day. Further, in no case shall an employee receive for a given day less than the amount earned by him as a result of the application of piece-work, tonnage or incentive rates. The turn guarantee of incentive earnings shall not apply on an individual turn basis to these operations concerning which it is not practicable to calculate such incentive earnings on the single turn basis, but shall in such cases apply on the smallest practicable number of eight (8) hour turns. The Employee's earnings for performing a given quantity and type of work will not be decreased due to the establishment of the minimum daily guarantee.

F. Shift Differentials.

1. Effective July 26, 1952, for hours worked on the afternoon shift there shall be paid a premium rate of 6 cents per hour. For hours worked on the night shift there shall be paid a premium rate of 9 cents per hour.

2. Shifts shall be identified in accordance with the following:

a. Day shift includes all turns regularly scheduled to commence between 6:00 A.M. and 8:00 A.M. inclusive.

b. Afternoon shift includes all turns regularly scheduled to commence between 2:00 P.M. and 4:00 P.M. inclusive.

c. Night shift includes all turns regularly scheduled to commence between 10:00 P.M. and 12:00 Midnight inclusive.

3. Shift differential shall be included in the calculation of overtime compensation. Shift differential shall not be added to the base hourly rate for the purpose of calculating incentive earnings but shall be computed by multiplying the hours worked by the applicable differential and the amount so determined added to earnings.

4. Any hours worked by an employee on a regularly scheduled shift which commences at a time not specified in Paragraph 2 above shall be paid as follows:

- a. For hours worked which would fall in the prevailing dayturn of the department no shift differential shall be paid.
- b. For hours worked which would fall in the prevailing afternoon turn of the department the afternoon shift differential shall be paid.
- c. For hours worked which would fall in the prevailing night turn of the department the night shift differential shall be paid.

5. Shift differential shall be paid for allowed time or reporting time when the hours for which payment is made would have called for a shift differential if worked.

G. Rate Establishment and Adjustment.

It is recognized that changing conditions and circumstances may from time to time require the installation of new wage rates, adjustment of existing wage rates or modification of wage rate plans because of the creation of new jobs, development of new manufacturing processes, changes in equipment, changes in the content of jobs, or improvements brought about by the Company in the interest of improved methods and product. Under such circumstances the following procedure shall apply:

1. New Wage Rates for New Jobs.

When a bona fide new job or position is to be established:

- a. Management will develop an appropriate hourly, tonnage, incentive or piecework rate.
- b. The proposed rate will be explained to the grievance committee with the objective of obtaining its agreement to the installation of the proposed rate, or, to the installation of the proposed rate for an agreed upon period which will serve as a trial period. Management may thereupon install such rate. If the rate is installed without agreement, it shall subsequently be subject to adjustment as provided below.

- c. When a wage rate for a new job is installed, the employee or employees affected may, at any time within ninety (90) days, (except where the parties otherwise mutually agree) file a grievance alleging that such new rate does not bear a fair relationship to other jobs in the same plant. Such grievance shall be adjusted under the grievance and arbitration machinery of this Agreement. If the grievance be submitted to the arbitration machinery, the decision shall be effective as of the date when the employee was assigned to the new job.

2. New Wage Rates for Changed Jobs.

When changes are made in equipment, method of processing, material processed, or quality or production standards which would result in a substantial change in job duties or requirements; or where over a period of time an accumulation of minor changes of this type have occurred which, in total, have resulted in a substantial change in job duties or requirements, adjustments of hourly, incentive, piece-work and tonnage rates, may be required. In such cases new wage rates shall be installed in the following manner:

a. Management will follow the procedure outlined in 1-a above. In addition, the rate proposal so developed will be fully explained to the Union representatives with the objective of obtaining their agreement to the proposal on the basis of equity. Negotiations may be instituted by the grievance committeeman representing affected employees or by Management. If subsequent rate studies are necessary, Management will acquaint the grievance committeeman or committee regarding such study and seek their cooperation. When the study has been completed and the proposed new wage rates computed, Management representatives will again confer with the committeeman or committee and fully explain the study. The procedure involved in explanation and negotiations will be that procedure outlined in Section VIII of this Agreement under which the first contacts will be with the foreman, with negotiations continuing through the successive steps of such procedure.

b. If Management and the Union representatives are unable to agree upon the new rate for the changed job, Management shall have the alternative of (1) establishing the new rate; (2) setting a temporary rate for a reasonable trial period. If Management elects to set the new rate for the changed job, the employee may file a grievance at any time within ninety (90) days (except where the parties otherwise mutually agree) from the installation of the new rate, and any change in the rate so determined shall be retroactive to the date of the assignment of the employee to the changed job. If Management adopts the alternative of a trial period, the employee, during such trial period, shall be guaranteed his straight-time average hourly earnings for the three months immediately preceding the change in the job content. After the expiration of the trial period, the employee or employees affected may, at any time within thirty (30) days, file a grievance and any change in the rate so determined shall be retroactive to a date no earlier than the date of the assignment of the employee to the changed job but no later than the date immediately following the expiration of the trial period. Such grievance shall be adjusted under the grievance and arbitration machinery of this Agreement. If any grievance under this Paragraph b is submitted to the arbitration machinery, the decision shall be governed by the principle that the new rate shall be in line with other rates in the plant. The details of applying this provision to cases in which an employee has worked at more than one job during the three months and to other exceptional situations shall be left to negotiations between the grievance committee and Management. The grievance committee and Management may agree to the computation of guaranteed earnings on a group or departmental rather than an individual basis.

Section IV—Hours of Work

A. This section defines the normal hours of work and shall not be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or per week, or of days of work per week. This section shall not be considered as any basis for the calculation of overtime.

B. The normal workday shall be 8 hours of work in a 24 hour period. The hours of work shall be consecutive except when an unpaid lunch period is provided in accordance with prevailing practices.

C. The normal work weeks shall be five (5) consecutive work days, followed by a rest period of forty-eight (48) consecutive hours within a period of seven (7) consecutive days; provided, however, that on shift changes the sixteen (16) hours rest period within the work day need not be provided in addition to, but may be considered as a part of the forty-eight (48) consecutive hour rest period and in the case of six day schedules as a part of the twenty-four (24) consecutive hour rest period. For payroll purposes a normal work week begins 8:00 A.M. Monday and ends 7:59 A.M. the following Monday.

D. Should it be necessary, in the interest of efficient operations, to establish schedules departing from normal, the grievance committee, the Executive Board of the Union, and the Management of the plant may, at the request of either party, confer to determine whether, based upon the facts of the situation, mutually satisfactory modified schedules can be arranged, but the final right to arrange working schedules rests with Management in order to avoid adversely affecting operation in the plant.

E. Schedules.

1. All employees shall be scheduled on the basis of the normal work pattern except where: (a) such schedules regularly would require the payment of overtime; (b) deviations from the normal work pattern are necessary because of breakdowns or other matters beyond the control of Management; or (c) schedules deviating from the normal work pattern are established by agreement between plant management and the grievance committee and the Executive Board of the Union.

2. Schedules showing employee's work-days shall be posted or otherwise made known to employees in accordance with prevailing practices but not later than Thursday of the week preceding the calendar week in which the schedule becomes effective unless otherwise provided by local agreement.

3. Schedules may be changed by Management at any time except where by local agreement schedules are not to be changed in the absence of mutual agreement; provided, however, that any changes made after Thursday of the week preceding the calendar week in which the changes are to be effective shall be explained at the earliest practicable time to the grievance or assistant grievance committeeman of the employee affected; and provided further that, with respect to any such schedules, no changes shall be made after Thursday except for breakdown or other matters beyond the control of Management.

4. Should changes be made in schedules contrary to the provisions of Paragraph 3 above so that an employee is laid off on any day within the 5 scheduled days and is required to work on what would otherwise have been the sixth or seventh workday in the schedule on which he was scheduled to commence work, the employee shall be paid for such sixth or seventh day worked at overtime rates in accordance with Section V, Overtime.

F. Reporting Allowance.

1. An Employee who is scheduled or notified to report and who does report for work shall be provided with and assigned to a minimum of four hours of work on the job for which he was scheduled or notified to report or, in the event such work is not available, shall be assigned or reassigned to another job paying at least an equal hourly rate, provided he is qualified to do the work. In the event, when he reports to work, no work is available, he shall be released from duty and credited with a reporting allowance of 4 times the hourly rate of the job for which he was scheduled or notified to report. When an employee who starts to work is released from duty before he works a minimum of 4 hours, he shall be paid for the hours worked at the rate for the reporting allowance equal to the hourly wage rate of the job for which he was scheduled or notified to report multiplied by the unutilized portion of the 4-hour minimum.

2. The provision of the above section 1 shall not apply in the event that;

- a. Strikes, work stoppages in connection with labor disputes, failure of utilities beyond the control of Management or acts of God interfere with work being provided; or
- b. An employee is not put to work or is laid off after having been put to work, either at his own request or due to his own fault; or
- c. An employee refuses to accept an assignment or reassignment within the first 4 hours as provided in Paragraph 1 above;
- d. Management gives reasonable notice of change in scheduled reporting time or that an employee need not report. Local management and grievance committee shall promptly determine what constitutes reasonable notice.

G. Absenteeism.

Whenever an employee has just cause for reporting late or absenting himself from work, he shall, whenever practicable, give notice as far in advance as possible to his Supervisor or other person designated to receive such notice.

Should an employee not have just cause for failing to give notice, he shall be subject to discipline regardless of whether or not the employee is otherwise subject to discipline for reporting late for or absenting himself from work without just cause.

Section V—Overtime

A. Purpose

This Section provides the basis for the calculation of, and payment for, overtime and shall not be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or per week, or a guarantee of days of work per week.

B. Definition of Terms

1. The payroll week shall consist of any 7 consecutive days used by the Company for computing the pay of employees (which may or may not coincide with a week beginning at 12:01 A.M. Sunday or at the turn-changing hour nearest to that time.)

2. The workday for the purposes of this Section is the 24-hour period beginning with the time the employee begins work.

3. Overtime rates shall be time and one-half the applicable hourly rate for the job on which the overtime hours are worked; except for employees on an incentive, tonnage or piecework basis, the applicable hourly rate shall be the average straight-time hourly earnings as computed in accordance with existing practices.

C. Conditions under which Overtime Rates shall be paid:

1. Overtime rates shall be paid for:

- a. hours worked in excess of 8 hours in a workday.
- b. hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a payroll week;
- c. hours worked on the sixth or seventh workday in a payroll week during which work was performed on 5 other workdays;
- d. hours worked on the sixth or seventh workday of a seven (7) consecutive day period during which the first five (5) days were worked, whether or not all of such days fall within the same payroll week, except when worked pursuant to schedules mutually agreed to as provided for in Subsection D of Section IV—Hours of Work; provided, however, that no overtime will be due under such circumstances unless the employee shall notify his foreman of a claim for overtime within a period of one (1) week after such sixth or seventh day is worked; and provided further that on shift changes the 7-consecutive-day period of 168 consecutive hours may become 152 consecutive hours depending upon the change in the shift.

2. Payment of overtime rates shall not be duplicated for the same hours worked. To the extent that hours are compensated for at overtime rates under one provision, they shall not be counted as hours worked in determining overtime under the same or any other provision, and reporting allowances under Subsection F of Section IV—Reporting Allowance shall not be used for determining hours of work or earnings for the calculation of or payment of overtime; provided, however, that a holiday in Section XII whether worked or not and whether scheduled as a day of work or not, shall be counted as a day worked in determining overtime under the provisions of Subsection C-1-c above.

Section VI—Vacations

(Effective January 1, 1952)

A. Eligibility

1. To be eligible for a vacation in any calendar year during the term of this Agreement, the employee must
  - a. have performed work during such calendar year,
  - b. have one year or more of continuous service, and
  - c. have received earnings in at least 60% of pay periods in the preceding calendar year; except that in the case of an employee who completes one year of continuous service in such calendar year, he shall have received earnings in at least 60% of the pay periods during the twelve months following the date of his original employment. An employee with more than one year of continuous service who in any year shall be ineligible for vacation by reason of this provision as a result of an absence on account of layoff or illness, shall receive one week's vacation with pay in such year, if he shall have worked in at least 60% of the pay periods in the 12 consecutive calendar months next preceding such vacation.

B. Length of Vacation

1. An eligible employee shall receive a vacation of
  - a. one week, provided such employee has attained one year and less than five years of continuous service in any calendar year during the terms of this Agreement;
  - b. two weeks, provided such employee has attained five or more years of continuous service in any such calendar year;
  - c. three weeks, provided such employee has attained 15 or more years of continuous service in any such calendar year.
2. A one week's vacation shall consist of seven consecutive days, a two week's vacation of fourteen consecutive days and a three week's vacation of 21 consecutive days provided, however, that in the event the orderly operations of the plant require, the two weeks' vacation may be scheduled in two periods of seven consecutive days each and the three weeks' vacation may be scheduled in two periods of seven and fourteen consecutive days.

C. Vacation Pay

Each employee granted a vacation will be paid at his average rate of earnings per hour for the first two of the last three closed and calculated pay periods worked by the employee preceding the first week of the actual vacation period. Hours of vacation pay for each vacation week shall be the average hours per week worked by the employee in the first two of the last three closed and calculated pay periods worked by the employee preceding the first week of the actual vacation period, but not less than forty (40) hours per week. For the purposes of this Section, "pay period" shall mean a two (2)-week period or a semi-monthly period.

D. Continuous service shall be determined by the employee's first employment in the plant of the Company, and in accordance with the provisions for determination of continuous service as set forth under Section VII hereof.

E. Vacations shall, so far as possible, be granted at time most desired by employees upon a seniority basis, but the final right to allotment of vacation period is exclusively reserved to the Company in order to insure the orderly operation of the plant.

F. It is understood and agreed that a temporary shutdown in any department, for any reason, between June 1 and October 1, may be designated as comprising the vacation period for any employees of the department who are qualified to receive vacation privileges.

G. In the case of an employee who dies and has complied with the requirements as to eligibility for vacation, vacation payments shall be paid to his wife or his estate.

H. An employee, even though eligible under this Sub-section A, forfeits the right to receive vacation benefits under this Section if

1. he quits without giving two weeks' written notice, or
2. he is discharged prior to receiving vacation pay or vacation allowance.

Section VII—Seniority

A. Seniority Status of Employees

The parties recognize that promotional opportunity and job security in event of promotions, decrease of forces and rehiring after layoffs should increase in proportion to length of continuous service, and that in the administration of this Section the intent will be that wherever practicable full consideration shall be given continuous service in such cases.

In recognition, however, of the responsibility of Management for the efficient operation of the works, it is understood and agreed that in all cases of:

1. promotion (except promotions to positions excluded under the definition of "employees" in Section II, Recognition) the following factors as listed below shall be considered:

- a. continuous service and ability to perform the work
- b. physical fitness

2. decrease in forces or rehiring after layoffs, the following factors as listed below shall be considered:

- a. continuous service and ability to perform the work
- b. physical fitness

Any employee of any department in the plant being laid off for lack of work and because he does not have sufficient department seniority to remain in the department of which he is employed shall have the right to demote to the labor pool where he shall retain employment so long as any employee of the labor pool has less seniority in the plant than the employee involved.

There shall be no deduction of any time lost which does not constitute a break in continuity of service. Continuous service is broken by:

1. Voluntarily quitting the service;
2. Absence due to discharge, termination or suspension, any of which continues for more than six (6) months; and unrenewed leave of absence for 30 days. Any extension of 30 days leave of absence must be approved by Management and Grievance Committee.

3. Absence due either to layoff or to disability or both which continues for more than two years; provided, however, that employees injured while on duty shall accumulate credit for continuous service until the termination of the period for which statutory compensation is payable.

4. If his employment shall be terminated by the Company, because he shall have been absent from work for 10 days or more without reasonable cause or because he shall have failed without such cause promptly to return to work after a leave of absence or when recalled to work after a lay-off.

New employees and those hired after a break in continuity of service will be regarded as probationary employees for the first thirty (30) days of actual work and will receive no continuous service credit during such period. Probationary employees may be laid off or discharged as exclusively determined by Management, provided that this provision will not be used for purposes of discrimination because of membership in the Union. Probationary employees continued in the service of the Company subsequent to the first thirty (30) days of actual work shall receive continuous service credit from the date of original hiring.

B. Waiver of Promotions

An employee may waive promotion signi-fyng such intention to his supervisor or shall be considered as waiving it if he fails to step up to fill a vacancy. Such waivers shall be noted in the personnel records and confirmed by the Company in writing to the Employee and the Union. Employees may withdraw their waiver or announce their intention to fill future vacancies (which the Company shall also note in personnel records and confirm in writing), following which they shall again become eligible for promotion, but an employee who has so waived promotion and later withdraws it as herewith provided shall not be permitted to challenge the future high sequential standing of those who have stepped ahead of him as the result of such waiver, until he has reached the same job level above (by filling a permanent opening) as those who have stepped ahead of him, at which time his waiver shall be considered as having no further force and effect. Employees may not enter and withdraw waivers indiscriminately and without good and valid reason.

C. Seniority with Relation to Supervisory Occupations

If an employee is promoted to a supervisory position and is later demoted, he may return to the department and sequence from which he came and his continuous length of service standing shall be the same as if he had not left, plus his service in the supervisory job, except that he shall not move into a job he has never held without first having performed the duties of the subordinate job.

D. A supervisor employee shall not perform any manual work other than for instruction, emergency, or other good cause.

E. Posting of Job Openings

When a vacancy develops, or is expected to develop (other than a temporary job of less than 30 days duration) in the promotional line in any seniority unit, Management shall, to the greatest degree practicable, post notice of such vacancy or expected vacancy, or job assignments for such period of time and in such manner as may be appropriate at the plant.

Employees in the seniority unit who wish to apply for the vacancy or expected vacancy may do so in writing in accordance with rules developed by Management at the plant.

Management shall, if in its judgment there are applicants qualified for the vacancy or expected vacancy, fill same from among such applicants in accordance with the provisions of Subsection A of this Section.

F. Transfers at Request of Employee

When an employee is transferred at his own request from one department to another, such transfer shall be probationary for a period of fourteen (14) calendar days. At any time within the period specified the employee may return of his own volition to his original department, or may be returned by the Company to his original department. In such case, the employee shall retain his original departmental seniority. If the employee elects to remain in the new department, after the expiration of the fourteen (14) calendar day period, he becomes a new employee in the new department, and loses his seniority in his old department.

No employee shall be permitted to make such a probationary transfer more often than once in twelve (12) consecutive months, nor more often than three (3) times during his employment by the Company.

G. Seniority Status of Grievance Committeemen and Local Union Officers

When management decides that the work force of any seniority unit in the plant is to be reduced, the member of the plant grievance committee, if any, in that unit shall, if the reduction in force continues to the point at which he would otherwise be laid off, be retained at work and for such hours per week as may be scheduled in the department in which he is employed, provided he can perform the work of the job to which he must be demoted. The intent of this provision is to retain in active employment the plant grievance committeemen for the purpose of continuity of the administration of the labor contract in the interest of employees so long as a work force is at work, provided that no grievance committeeman shall be retained in employment unless work which he can perform is available to him in the plant area which he represents on the grievance committee.

This provision shall apply also to employees who hold any of the following offices in the local union or unions in which the employees of the plant are members: President, Vice President; Recording Secretary; Financial Secretary and Treasurer.

H. Leaves of Absence for Employees who accept Positions with the International or Local Unions

Leave of Absence for the purpose of accepting positions with the International or Local Unions shall be available to a reasonable number of employees. Adequate notice of intent to apply for leave shall be afforded local plant management to enable proper provision to be made to fill the job to be vacated.

Leaves of Absence shall be for a period not in excess of one year and may be renewed for a further period of one year.

Continuous service shall not be broken by the leave of absence but will continue to accrue.

I. Seniority Study

Within sixty days following the date of this Agreement, the Company and the Union shall each designate three members to a joint committee. The committee shall study seniority practices in effect in the Company and recommend practices best calculated to assure to the Company qualified employees in each job in the interest of safe and efficient operations and to the employees the greatest degree of opportunity for advancement increasing with length of service as are consistent with the objectives of the parties which are safe and efficient operations, protection of the employees and cooperative employer-employee relationships.

Section VIII—Adjustment of Grievances

The procedural steps for the settlement of grievance hereinafter set forth represent a general standard which may be modified at the plant by agreement between the Management and Union if the modifications agreed upon are in keeping with a procedure best suited for the orderly and expeditious settlement of grievances at the plant in question. The Grievance Committee for the plant shall consist of not less than three (3) employees of the plant and not more than six (6) employees, designated by the Union who will be afforded such time off without pay as may be required except when meeting is called by Management.

1. To attend regularly scheduled committee meeting
2. To attend meetings pertaining to discharge or other matters which cannot reasonably be delayed until the time of the next scheduled meeting, and
3. To visit departments other than their own at all reasonable times, only for the purpose of handling grievances, after notice to the head of the department to be visited and permission from their own departmental superintendent.

The parties agree that in the interest of proper disposition of grievances there may be appointed representative stewards who shall aid the grievance committee for the prompt handling of grievances. The stewards shall be permitted to represent employees up to and including Step 1, only, in the procedure for the adjustment of grievances, set forth in this section, and will be afforded such time off without pay, as may be required.

Should differences arise between the Company and the Union as to the meaning and application of the provisions of this Agreement, or should any local trouble of any kind arise in the plant, there shall be no suspension of work on account of such differences, but an earnest effort shall be made to settle such differences promptly in the manner hereinafter outlined. Any grievances in the process of adjustment on the date of the execution of this Agreement shall be handled in accordance with the procedure herein outlined.

Any employee who believes that he has a just request or complaint may discuss the request or alleged complaint with his foreman with or without the departmental representative being present as he may elect in an attempt to settle same. The foreman shall answer the request or complaint within forty-eight (48) hours. Any request or complaint not disposed of shall constitute a grievance within the meaning of this Section, Adjustment of Grievances.

STEP 1. The employee, if dissatisfied with the disposition of the request or complaint as presented to his foreman may have his alleged grievance presented to his foreman and to the department superintendent by the departmental representative with or without the employee being present. The grievance presented in this step shall be set forth in writing on appropriate forms and the foreman and the department superintendent shall be required to answer the complaint within seventy-two (72) hours, excluding Sundays and Holidays from the time of presentation in such written form. The grievance form shall be dated and signed by the employee and departmental representative or grievance committeeman and three copies given the foreman and the departmental superintendent, who will insert their dispositions, sign and date same, returning two copies to the departmental representative of grievance committeeman.

STEP 2. In the event no satisfactory settlement of the grievance is arrived at in Step 1 of this procedure, the grievance committee may present the grievance to the General Superintendent of the plant, or his representative at the next regular monthly meeting of the grievance committee. Grievances to be discussed at such regular monthly meetings shall be listed on agenda forms by the grievance committee and the management and copies of such forms shall be exchanged not less than three (3) working days before such meeting. Grievances not listed in the agenda shall not be discussed at said grievance meeting except as mutually agreed upon. Grievances in the agenda or evidence not previously discussed in Step 1 hereof may be referred back, for such discussion unless the grievances relate to matters general in character which cannot be settled by individual foremen or departmental superintendents. Nothing in this Step 2 shall preclude additional meetings, as there may be mutual recognition of such need in accordance with the intent of this Section.

Grievances to be discussed at such meetings may be fully investigated by a member of the grievance committee who shall be afforded such time off without pay as may be necessary for purposes of such complete investigation, which time off shall occur between the date of filing of the Grievance in Step 1 hereof and its discussion at the meeting herein referred to.

Grievances discussed in such meeting and not settled shall be answered in writing by plant management not later than five (5) days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays after the date of such meeting unless by mutual agreement a different date for disposition is agreed upon.

Grievances not appealed from the disposition in the meeting within ten (10) days thereof, or not appealed within ten (10) days from the date of the written answers as above provided shall be considered settled on the basis of the decision last made and shall not be eligible for further appeal.

Minutes of all Step 2 meetings shall be prepared by the Superintendent of Industrial Relations, jointly signed by the Chairman or Secretary of the grievance committee and the Superintendent of Industrial Relations, and two copies of such minutes shall be handed the grievance committee not later than five (5) days following the date on which the meeting was held, or the date on which the written decision was made. Minutes shall be typed and shall conform essentially to the following outline:

- A. Date and place of meeting.
- B. Names and positions of those present and those absent.
- C. Identifying number and description of each grievance discussed.
- D. Brief statement of Union position.
- E. Brief statement of Company position.
- F. Summary of the discussion.
- G. Decision reached.
- H. Statement of concurrence in or exceptions to decision.
- I. Statement as to whether decision accepted or rejected.

STEP 3. Grievances not satisfactorily settled in Step 2 may be appealed for discussion in an attempt to reach a mutually satisfactory settlement between the representative of the International Union certified to the Management in writing the representative of the Company, similarly certified by the Company.

Written notice of appeal shall be served by either representative designated above on the other prior to the expiration of ten (10) days following disposition in Step 2 hereof. Such notice shall state subject matter of grievance, identifying number and objections taken by either party to previous dispositions.

Either party may request a further statement of facts to be made available not later than three (3) days preceding the date set for the Step 3 meeting and either party may produce witnesses, who, being familiar with the facts involved, may aid in a solution of the problem. In the interest of expeditious and unprejudiced handling of grievances it is intended that attendance at Step 3 meetings shall be limited to the representative of the Company and the International representative of the Union, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in advance of the meeting.

Witnesses desired by either party shall be available as needed, but shall be restricted as to attendance to the time required for their testimony. Further no employee grievances shall be permitted to progress into Step 4 without review by the District Union Representative.

STEP 4. Whenever either party concludes that further conferences in Step 3 cannot contribute to settlement of the grievance, such grievance may be appealed by either party to an impartial arbitrator to be appointed by mutual agreement of the parties hereto within ten (10) days following receipt by either party of a written request for such appointment. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final. The expense and salary incident to the services of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Company and the Union. Awards or settlements of grievances may or may not be retroactive but in no event shall any award be retroactive beyond the date on which the grievance was first presented in written form in Step 1 of grievance procedure, as the equities of each case (discharge cases excepted) may demand. The Arbitrator shall only have jurisdiction and authority to interpret, apply or determine compliance with the provisions relating to wages, hours of work and other conditions of employment set forth in this Agreement together with those which are, or may hereafter be in effect at the plant of the Company, insofar as shall be necessary to the determination of such grievances arising hereunder, but the arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction or authority to add to, detract from, or alter in any way the provisions of this Agreement.

Company Grievances — The Grievance procedure may be utilized by the Company in processing Company grievances. In processing such grievances, the Company shall observe the specified time limits in appealing and the Union shall observe the specified time limits in answering. It is agreed by the parties hereto that procedure provided in this Section, if followed in good faith by both parties, is adequate for fair and expeditious settlement of any grievances arising in the plant of the Company. It is understood and agreed that grievances to be considered must be filed promptly after the occurrence thereof. It is further understood that an interruption or impeding of the work, stoppage, or strike on the part of the Union, or a lockout on the part of the Company, shall be a violation of this Agreement, and that under no circumstances shall the parties hereto discuss the grievance in question or any other grievances while the work interruption, impeding or suspension of work is in effect. It is further agreed that, if this procedure is not followed and as a result of such failure an interruption or impeding of the work, stoppage or strike occurs, the offending person or persons refusing to resume normal work may be suspended and later discharged from the employ of the Company in accordance with Section VIII of this Agreement, provided, however, that prior to such discharge the Company will provide a list of names, check numbers and addresses of employees considered by it to be involved to the representatives of the Union in the District in which the plant is located.

Section IX—Management

The Management of the works and the direction of the working forces, including the right to hire, suspend or discharge for proper cause, and the right to relieve employees from duty because of lack of work or for other legitimate reasons, is vested exclusively in the Company, provided that this will not be used for purposes of discrimination against any member of the Union. The Company in the exercise of its rights shall observe the provisions of this Agreement.

Section X—Discharge Cases

In the exercise of its rights as set forth in Section IX, Management agrees that a member of the Union shall not be peremptorily discharged from and after the date hereof, but that in all instances in which Management may conclude that an employee's conduct may justify suspension or discharge, he shall first be suspended. Such initial suspension shall be for not more than five (5) days, calendar. During this period of initial suspension, the employee may, if he believes that he has been unjustly dealt with, request a hearing and a statement of the offense before his department head with the departmental representative or grievance committeeman present as he may choose, or the General Superintendent or the Manager of the Plant with or without the member or members of the grievance committee present, as he similarly may choose. At such hearing the facts concerning the case shall be made available to both parties. After such hearing or if no such hearing Management may conclude whether the suspension shall be converted into discharge or, dependent upon the fact of the case that such suspension may be extended or revoked. If the suspension is revoked, the employee shall be returned to employment and receive full compensation at his regular rate of pay for the time lost, but in the event a disposition shall result in either the affirmation or extension of the suspension or discharge of the employee, the employee may within five (5) days after such disposition allege a grievance which shall be handled in accordance with the procedure of Section VIII "Adjustment of Grievances." Final decision on all suspension or discharge cases shall be made by the Company within five (5) days from the date of filing the grievance, if any. Should it be determined by the Company or by an arbitrator in accordance with Step 4 of the grievance procedure that the employee has been discharged or suspended unjustly, the Company shall reinsate the employee and pay full compensation at the employee's regular rate of pay for the time lost.

Section XI—Military Service

A. Re-employment

Except as shall be otherwise provided by law or by agreement in writing between the parties hereto, should any employee, other than temporary employee, at the plant, who has entered or shall enter the military, naval, or merchant marine service of the United State, be honorably discharged from such service and shall within ninety (90) days after he is relieved from such service or in the case of disabled veterans within ninety (90) days after the completion of hospitalization continuing after discharge, apply to the Company in writing for reemployment at such plant for the purposes of Section VII—Seniority, his record of continuous service at that plant shall be deemed not to have been broken by his absence on such military, naval, or merchant marine service, and on the basis of said seniority, (determined in accordance with the provisions of said Section VII) he shall be entitled to reemployment at such plant, if and when work which he is qualified to perform is available in such plant to a position, wage rate and status which he would have reached in normal job and wage progression had he not left the Company for such services, he shall be given preference over any other employee with less seniority as so determined by said Section VII. Should the employee be unable to perform the job to which he is thereby entitled he shall be granted a reasonable program of training so that he may have the opportunity to perform the work required. If an employee so applying for reemployment shall so request, he shall be granted a leave of absence without pay not to exceed sixty (60) days before he returns to work. The above provisions shall not apply where employee enlists or reenlists during period other than during a national emergency.

Any employee entitled to reinstatement under this Section who applies for reemployment and who desires to pursue a course of study in accordance with the Federal law granting him such opportunity, before returning to his employment with the Company, shall be granted a leave of absence for such purpose. Such leave of absence shall not constitute a break in the record of continuous service of such employees but shall be included therein provided the employee reports promptly for reemployment after the completion or termination of such course of study. Any such employee must notify the Company and the Union in writing at least once each year of his continued interest to resume active employment with the Company upon completing or terminating such course of study. Any employee entitled to reinstatement under this Section who entered the armed forces of the United States and who returns with service connected disability incurred during the course of his service shall be assigned to any vacancy which shall be suitable to such impaired condition during the continuance of such disability irrespective of seniority; provided, however, that such impairment is of such a nature as to render the veteran's returning to his own job or department onerous or impossible; and provided further that the veteran meets the minimum physical requirements for the job available or for the job as Management may be able to adjust it to meet the veteran's impairment.

B. Vacations

If an employee who would otherwise have been entitled to a vacation with pay, or in lieu thereof to vacation allowance, under the provisions of Section VI, Vacations, during the calendar year in which he shall enter the military, naval, or merchant marine service of the United States before he shall have accepted vacation allowance in lieu of a vacation, he shall be paid an amount equal to the vacation pay which he would have been entitled to receive for the period of such vacation.

An employee who, after being honorably discharged from military, naval, or merchant marine service of the United States, is reinstated pursuant to this Section XI, shall be entitled to a vacation with pay or in lieu thereof to vacation allowance in and for the calendar year in which he is reinstated in accordance with the provisions of Section VI.

C. Advisory Committee

A committee consisting of equal representatives of the Company and the Union shall be established in the plant for the purpose of advising on problems relating to reemployment and readjustment of returning service personnel.

Section XII—Holidays

A. Effective July 26, 1952, the following days shall be considered holidays

July 4th	New Year's Day
Labor Day	Thanksgiving Day
Christmas	Decoration Day

If any of these holidays shall fall on a Sunday, the following Monday (and not such Sundays) shall be observed.

B. Effective as of the date of this agreement, an eligible employee who does not work on a holiday listed above shall be paid 8 times the applicable hourly rate of the job to which he is regularly assigned, exclusive of shift and overtime premiums (in the case of an employee who is paid on an incentive basis, the employee's average hourly earnings exclusive of shift and overtime premiums for the pay period in which the holiday is observed shall be used); provided, however, that if an eligible employee is scheduled to work on any such holiday, but fails to report and perform his scheduled or assigned work, he shall become ineligible to be paid for the unworked holiday, unless he has failed to perform such work because of sickness or because of death in the immediate family or because of similar good cause. As used in this Article, an eligible employee is one who

(1) has worked 30 working days since his last hire;

(2) performs work in the pay period in which the holiday is observed (or where there are weekly pay periods, the pay period in which the holiday is observed or the next preceding pay period) and

(3) works as scheduled or assigned both on his last scheduled workday prior to and his first scheduled workday following the day on which the holiday is observed; unless he has failed so to work because of sickness or because of death in the immediate family or because of similar good cause.

C. An eligible employee who would otherwise be entitled to pay for an unworked holiday and who shall be scheduled pursuant to the provisions of Section VI to take a vacation during a period when a holiday occurs, shall be paid for the unworked holiday in addition to his vacation pay.

D. No employee shall receive more than double time for hours worked on any holiday.

E. In determining whether an employee has worked on more than five days in any week for the purposes of clause of Section 5 C 2 a holiday occurring in such week shall be considered as a day worked by him whether or not he shall have worked on such holiday and regardless of whether it was scheduled as a day of work, or a day of rest; provided, however, that, if he shall have been scheduled to work on such holiday and shall have failed to perform the work to which he was assigned on such day, such holiday shall not be considered as a day worked by him.

F. A holiday shall be deemed to begin at the beginning of the day shift on such holiday and to end at the beginning of the day shift on the next succeeding day.

Section XIII—Safety and Health

A. Objective and Obligations of the Parties

The Company and the Union will cooperate in the continuing objective to eliminate accidents and health hazards. The Company shall continue to make reasonable provisions for the safety and health of its employees at the plant during the hours of their employment.

B. Protective Devices, Wearing Apparel and Equipment

Protective devices, wearing apparel and other equipment necessary to properly protect employees from injury shall be provided by the Company in accordance with practices now prevailing in each separate department or as such practices may be improved from time to time by the Company. Goggles; gas masks; face shields; respirators; special purpose gloves; fire proof, water proof or acid proof protective clothing when necessary and required shall be provided by the Company without cost, except that the Company may assess a fair charge to cover loss or willful destruction thereof by the employee. Where any such equipment or clothing is now provided, the present practice concerning charge for loss or willful destruction by the employee shall continue. Proper heating and ventilating systems shall be installed where needed.

C. Joint Safety Committees

A safety committee consisting of three employees designated by the Union and three Management members designated by the Company shall be established in the plant. The safety committee shall hold monthly meetings at times determined by the committee, preferably outside of regular working hours. Time consumed on committee work by committee members designated by the Union shall not be considered hours worked to be compensated by the Company. The function of the safety committee shall be to advise with plant management concerning safety and health matters but not to handle grievances. In the discharge of its function, the safety committee shall: consider existing practices and rules relating to safety and health, formulate suggested changes in existing practices and rules and recommend adoption of new practices and rules. Advice of the safety committee, together with supporting suggestions, recommendations and reasons, shall be submitted to the plant General Superintendent for his consideration and for such action as he may consider consistent with the Company's responsibility to provide for the safety and health of its employees during the hours of their employment and the mutual objective set forth in Sub-section A.

Section XIV—Severance Allowance

A. Conditions of Allowance

When, in the sole judgment of the Company, it decides to close permanently a plant or discontinue permanently a department of a plant or substantial portion thereof and terminate the employment of individuals, an employee whose employment is terminated either directly or indirectly as a result thereof because he was not entitled to other employment with the Company under the provisions of Section VII Seniority of this Agreement and Paragraph B-2 below, shall be entitled to a severance allowance in accordance with and subject to the following provisions.

B. Eligibility

Such an employee to be eligible for a severance allowance shall have accumulated

3 or more years of continuous Company service as computed in accordance with Section VII-Seniority of this Agreement.

1. In lieu of severance allowance, the Company may offer an eligible employee a job, in the same job class for which he is qualified, in the same general locality. The employee shall have the option of either accepting such new employment or requesting his severance allowance. If an employee accepts such other employment, his continuous service record shall be deemed to have commenced as of the date of the transfer, except that for the purposes of severance pay under this Section and for the purposes of Section VI-Vacations, his previous continuous service record shall be maintained and not be deemed to have been broken by the transfer.

2. As an exception to Paragraph 1 above, an employee otherwise eligible for severance pay who is entitled under Section VII-Seniority to a job in the same job class in another part of the same plant shall not be entitled to severance pay whether he accepts or rejects the transfer. If such transfer results directly in the permanent displacement of some other employee, the latter shall be eligible for severance pay provided he otherwise qualifies under the terms of this Section.

C. Scale of Allowance

An eligible individual shall receive severance allowance based upon the following weeks for the corresponding continuous Company service:

Continuous Company Service

Weeks of Severance Allowance

3 years but less than 5 years	4
5 years but less than 7 years	6
7 years but less than 10 years	7
10 years or more	8

A week's severance allowance shall be determined in accordance with the provisions for calculation of vacation allowance as set forth in Subsection C of Section VI-Vacations.

E. Payment of Allowance

Payment shall be made in a lump sum at the time of termination.

F. Non-duplication of Allowance

Severance allowance shall not be duplicated for the same severance, whether the other obligations arises by reason of contract, law or otherwise. If an individual is or shall become entitled to any discharge, liquidation, severance or dismissal allowance or payment of similar kind by reason of any law of the United States of America or any of the states, districts or territories thereof subject to its jurisdiction, the total amount of such payments shall be deducted from the severance allowance to which the individual may be entitled under this Section, or any payment made by the Company under this Section may be offset against such payments. Statutory unemployment compensation payments shall be excluded from the non-duplication provisions of this paragraph.

Section XV—Prior Agreements

This Agreement terminates all prior Agreements between the parties. No grievance alleged because of conditions existing while any prior agreement between the parties was in effect shall be presented for adjustment except insofar as the conditions upon which said grievance is based continue in effect and are the proper subject of a grievance under this Agreement, and except further that any grievance, which as of the date of this Agreement has been presented in writing and is in the process of adjustment under the grievance procedure of the prior Agreement may be considered under the grievance procedure set forth in this Agreement and settled in accordance with the applicable provisions of the prior Agreement in effect at the time the grievance was presented.

Section XVI—Termination Date

A. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement shall become effective on August 27, 1952, and shall continue in effect to and including midnight of July 30, 1954 (or later as provided in paragraph C below). Either party may on or before June 1, 1954, give notice to the other party of the desire of the party giving such notice to negotiate with respect to the terms and conditions of a new agreement on wages, rates of pay, hours of work and other conditions of employment including pensions and insurance (the provisions of the Pension and Insurance Agreement dated December 28, 1949, to the contrary notwithstanding); provided, however, that the terms and conditions of said new agreement with respect to pensions and insurance shall not be made effective before December 1, 1954. If the parties shall not agree with respect to pensions and insurance by midnight of July 30, 1954 (or later as provided in paragraph C below), either party may thereafter resort to strike or lockout as the case may be in support of its position in respect of such matters as well as any other matter in dispute (the provisions of the Pension and Insurance Agreement dated December 28, 1949, to the contrary notwithstanding).

B. Either party may on or before June 1, 1953 (or later as provided in paragraph C below), give notice to the other party of the desire of the party giving such notice to negotiate with respect to a general and uniform change in wage rates. After the giving of such notice and before the parties shall reach an agreement on such matter (and during the period of any strike or lockout which shall occur as permitted by the provisions of this paragraph), neither party shall request the other party to bargain or continue to bargain with respect to any other matter and neither party shall have any obligation to negotiate or bargain with the other party with respect to any such other matter. If such notice is given the parties shall meet within 30 days after June 1, 1953 (or later as provided in paragraph C below), to negotiate with respect to such matter. If the parties shall not agree with respect to such matter by midnight of July 30, 1953 (or later as provided in paragraph C below), either party may thereafter resort to strike or lockout, as the case may be, in support of its position in respect of such matter. If and when the parties shall have reached an agreement with respect to such matter, there shall be added to and incorporated in this Agreement such additional provisions as shall have been agreed to with respect to such matter only, and no others, and this Agreement, as so modified, shall thereafter continue in full force and effect to midnight of July 30, 1954 (or later as provided in paragraph C below).

C. If the Union grants the United States Steel Company an extension in its reopening date or termination date, or if work is continued for any reason after the reopening date or termination date, of the United States Steel Company Agreement by action of either or both parties, the Federal Government, or otherwise, then and in such case, it is agreed that the period or periods of such an extension or continuation of work shall automatically be added to the reopening date or termination date contained in this Agreement. In other words, it is agreed that under all conditions, the reopening date or termination date of this Agreement shall be thirty (30) days after the ultimate reopening date or termination date of the United States Steel Company agreement or after any continuation of work thereafter, whichever is later.

D. Any notice to be given under this Agreement shall be given by registered mail to be completed by and at the time of mailing and if by the Company be addressed to the United Steelworkers of America, Commonwealth Building, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and if by the Union to the Company at Latrobe, Pennsylvania. Either party may, by like written notice, change the address to which registered mail notice to it shall be given.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be signed in the respective names by their respective representatives thereunto duly authorized, as of the day and year first above written.
