

2019 USW Rapid Response & Legislative Conference

October 28-30, 2019 – Hyatt Regency Washington on Capitol Hill – Washington, D.C.

March 11, 2019

USW Local Union Presidents, Recording Secretaries and Rapid Response Coordinators:

We are excited to announce the 2019 Rapid Response and Legislative Conference. It will be held from October 28-30, 2019, in Washington, D.C., at the Hyatt Regency Washington on Capitol Hill.

Every time we walk into our workplaces or negotiate a contract, laws and policies impact us. Elected officials are making decisions on these issues every day. The question is, will those decisions benefit us or do us harm?

Getting involved in Rapid Response and our union's legislative work brings our perspective to the table. By attending the conference, locals will gain knowledge on the key issues of today, learn how to share those issues with your broader membership, and build skills to help your local engage in actions that boost our union's power to impact government decisions – whether that's in Washington, in your state, or even your local community.

Whether your local has attended this conference in the past or is contemplating attending for the first time, we welcome everyone to participate. We will hold sessions for advanced activists as well as those who are learning about Rapid Response and our union's legislative work for the first time. The three-day event will include plenary sessions, workshops, opportunities to connect with other locals, meetings with your federal lawmakers, and more.

We encourage every local to take part. We all have a stake. Rapid Response Coordinators and Team Members along with Local leadership are strongly encouraged to attend.
