These council meetings are not restricted to women; however, local unions are encouraged to seek out females who are involved in the local's WOS committees and reflect the diversity of our Union, as well as to develop the potential in members not currently active.

For those who will be attending, please call Tiffany Olson at (218)744-2757 or email at tolson@usw.org to let her know who from your local will be attending. The company has requested an accurate count for the tour. All locals must RSVP prior to November 1st to ensure a place for your attendees on the tour. Please include name, employer, local union number and a contact phone number for each of your members who will be attending.
