Deduction Issues

We have been made aware that Strada improperly loaded the per-pay-period amounts from the 2025 annual enrollment file for three benefit types - Health Care FSA, Dependent Care FSA, and Employee HSA Contribution. As a result, employees that were impacted by this issue have deductions missing from their pay issued to date in 2025.

Corrective Action

- Strada to send letters to impacted employees notifying of error
- FSA Deductions (Health care and Dependent Care) – will be recouped in next paycheck for biweekly, or the next 2 pay checks for weekly, in addition to their normal per-pay-period amount
- HSA Deductions – will not be corrected; employees will be given the option to change their deduction amounts at any time for the remainder of year (up through the IRS $ limit)
