ILLINOIS ELECTION 2018 – Information to help you make your ballot choices.

JB Pritzker for Governor of Illinois

Illinois is my home. This is where I've raised my family, where I built a business and where I've created programs to improve the lives of people across the state. What's happening now in Springfield is offensive to our values. Bruce Rauner's failure as governor is creating real damage every day to people across Illinois. None of us can afford to sit on the sidelines. We have to stand up for what we believe in. That's why I'm running for Governor and why I'm so proud to have a champion for working families like Juliana Stratton as my running mate.

Cheri Bustos for US House of Rep. 17th Dist.

Cheri is the only Midwesterner in Democratic House Leadership that stresses the importance of listening to, and focusing on, hardworking families.

Mike Halpin for State Rep., 72nd Dist.

Mike has been practicing law at the Rock Island firm of McCarthy, Callas, & Feeney, P.C. for the past five years. In 2013, after only three years at the firm, he became a partner. His primary areas of practice are Labor Law and Municipal Law, as well as representing working people in their family law, traffic, and real estate matters. Mike also serves on the Board of Directors for Bridging the Gap: Stand Down for Homeless Veterans, and provides free consultations, and some pro bono representation, for veterans in need.

Joan Padilla for State Rep., 71st Dist.

I am officially on the ballot to run for State Representative in the 71st District! I know that 2017 was a rough year for many families in the state of Illinois. I'm working hard to be able to change the direction of our state to protect hard working families

Gregg Johnson for State Senate, 36th Dist.

Gregg Johnson grew up in Rock Island County in a blue-collar union family. His father worked at the Farmall plant and was a lifelong UAW member. When the plant shut down, many jobs—including Gregg's father's—left town. Gregg started a career with the Illinois Department of Corrections, first as a corrections officer and was eventually promoted to supervisor, where he spent thirty-two years working to keep his coworkers and our community safe. Gregg lives in East Moline with his wife, Celia, and their youngest daughter, Gabby. As a father, a grandfather, and a husband, Gregg is committed to creating the kind of economic opportunities that our families need to thrive and the kind of education system that our kids need to succeed in the 21st century economy.

James Greenwood for Rock Island County Board, Dist. 25

James believes that a more thoughtful approach to government is required to meet the challenges facing Rock Island County. Flowing from this, he strives to place his legal and military experience to work building collaborative relationships with all stakeholders to achieve the best possible outcome for his constituents.

Ken "Moose" Maranda for Rock Island County Board, Dist. 23

The Rock Island County Board is moving forward with a positive, can-do attitude, and I want to see it continue. I believe I have been part of the team that wants to enable the county board's growth to continue.

I also believe there is more work to do, and I want to be on the next county board to share my thoughts and ideas with members. In my leadership role as county board chairman, I have always aimed to do the right thing when called upon to handle difficult situations.

Dorothy Beck for Rock Island County Board, Dist. 21

After serving for six years on the Black Hawk College Board of Trustees, I was not planning on being a candidate for anything else anytime soon. But when it appeared that there would be a vacancy on the county board in my district, several people in the community for whom I have a great deal of respect urged me to run. I agreed, and so I am committed to learning as much as I can about the workings of the county board and the issues that it must face.

Edna Sowards for Rock island County Board, Dist. 15

In 2017, I was asked to take the position on the county board that was vacated by Nick Camlin, due to his appointment as deputy county clerk. I accepted, and was sworn in. Because of this, I have learned a great deal about the County of Rock Island, and the workings of the county government. I feel the need to increase the diversification on the board, and to get more involved in representing and working with the citizens of our county.

David Adams for Rock Island County Board, Dist. 12

I am running because I want to serve my community in the best way I know. I feel as though my knowledge and expertise would be beneficial to the Rock Island County Board. I am knowledgeable about prevailing wage, labor laws, management, and general health-care laws. I believe I am the best candidate for the job because I am passionate about helping our community thrive and improve.

Scott Noyd for Rock Island County Board, Dist. 03

I want to continue working on the progress that has been made over the past two years, that I have been a member of the county board. I believe that the county board has and is making strides in the process of working through the difficult problems that the county currently faces.

Gary Freeman for Rock Island County Board, Dist. 02

I believe I'll bring experienced leadership to this office. All board members should be working on behalf of the voters that live within the district. The goals we have as a county board must align with the wishes of our citizens. We all need to look to controlling runaway cost increases.

I am fighting to keep our community and our way of life alive for families like ours with innovative economic proposals to create good-paying jobs in growing industries like advanced manufacturing, renewable energy, and medical care."
