Big Win For Fight For $15 – Target Raising Wages To $15 By 2020

<http://workersindependentnews.com>

By Doug Cunningham

September 25, 2017

Target stores say they will pay workers $15 an hour by 2020. Target is raising wages to $11 an hour from their current minimum of $10 starting next month.

Fight For $15 says if Target can do it, companies like McDonald's can, too.

The Fight For 415 workers movement backed by SEIU started with 200 New York City low wage workers walking off their jobs to demand a minimum of $15 and a union five years ago. Since then, SEIU says, 22 million American workers have won raises, including 10 million who are on their way to $15 an hour.

Kayla Gray is a worker in the Fight For $15. [Kayla Gray]: "We need this. You know, this will help millions of us. Us coming together – marching, going to McDonald's. You know, we're all fighting for the union and fifteen dollars an hour."

Thanks Received:

"I would like to thank you for the coat, watch, and buckknife. I would also like to tell you how much it has meant to me to be a member of such a good union all these years." Harry Buckley (Rolling Dept Retiree)
